MEDIA RELEASE

INSPIRING 2019 NATIONAL CONFERENCE - FOR ALL CONCERNED CHRISTIANS

For immediate circulation

Over 100 delegates shared in an inspirational national conference at the Novotel hotel Parramatta on Saturday 16 November. A panel of national Christian leaders addressed the conference on the subject of religious freedom and freedom of speech. The guest speakers who addressed the conference included the following:

- Hon John Anderson, Keynote speaker, former Deputy Prime Minister.
- Dr. Rachel Carling, is the CEO of Right to Life.
- Rev. Peter Barnes, is the Federal Moderator of Australian Presbyterian Assembly.
- Bill Muehlenberg, author and lecturer.
- Gamil Helmy-Kostandy, Conference Chairman.

John Anderson, Keynote Speaker

Dr. Rachel Carling, Right to Life

Bill Muehlenberg, Author, Lecturer

Rev. Hon. Fred Nile MLC makes the following post-Conference comments:

- "I was pleased when the delegates prepared the agenda for the conference sponsor, the Australian Christian Nation Association [ACNA] for future implementation."
- "The recent review by the Labor Party, which was reported on in the Sunday edition of the Catholic Weekly by Peter Rosengren, admits that the ALP has lost the Christian vote. The very reason why ACNA was established was to engage Christians of good faith in the political and policy making process. Obviously, our organisation is now more relevant than ever."
