The yearly celebration of Christianity in the public square, known as the “Sydney Holy City March” was held in Sydney Sunday 8 March 2020.

This year’s march was marked by a spirit of Christian unity. Many denominations joined hands and walked as one body under Jesus Christ. The March was a colourful procession incorporating trumpets, music, dance and drums and included an amazing new art sculpture of a spectacular golden lion’s head, known as the ‘Lion of Judah’, a unique 3D cubism 21st century design. Marchers in costume displayed a float with the seven true colours of the rainbow and four amazing Celtic style beasts reflected from the Bible with a large sign declaring the promises of God.

As with prior marches, people gathered on the side of the street where the marches walked, and offered their support with shouts of praise. The turnout was remarkable in light of the Corona Virus outbreak which has kept many away from places of large scale pedestrian traffic.

Rev Fred Nile and Silvana Nile both headed the march, with Major Hwan Ki Kim President of the Holy Spirit movement. Special guest at this year's March was Rev Hyun Soo Lim from the Light Korea Presbyterian Church (Ontario, Canada). Pastor Kim was a former inmate at a North Korean Labour Camp after being accused of spreading the Gospel to the people of that totalitarian atheist dictatorship.

The Holy City March concluded with a Prayer Concert for All Nations in Martin Place with Rev Martin Yoon, Rev Hyun Soo Lim, Peter About from the Prison Fellowship, Rev John Kennedy from the Yahweh Gumbuya Church, Rev Samuel Djunaedi from the Ecclesia Mission and Rev Shane Khin from the Multicultural Ministry Connection.

The mission of the Holy City March is to proclaim the spirit of faith, to change the climate of faith from unbelief to belief, to march and make a stand against the works opposing the church, the word, and all righteous law, to proclaim, declare and decree the supreme power of the 'Eternal Almighty' over the nation, and beyond; and to unify the Body of Christ under the one banner of God.

We thank the organisers of the Sydney Holy City March and look forward to next year, when the event will surely make its presence felt in the streets of our great city.
