MEDIA RELEASE

VANDELISING HISTORIC MONTUMENTS INCLUDING CAPTAIN JAMES COOK MONUEMENT IN SYDNEY'S HYDE PARK

For immediate circulation

“Any individuals vandalising a approved historic movement should be charged for a criminal offence the NSW Police Force”.

“I congratulate the NSW Police for charging the two women for destroying and damaging property such as Captain James Cook Statue and possessing a graffiti implement.

These two women, one of them is a part-time employee of NSW Upper House Green Party Leader David Shoebridge.

These two women were refused bail to appear at Parramatta bail court later on Sunday 14th June 2020.

I condemn similar vandalism in other States” said Rev Fred Nile MLC
