Dear Revd Nile,

I write to offer you my deepest congratulations on your 40 year anniversary as a member of the Legislative Council, with your term of office commencing on 19 September 1981. Your contribution to the Parliament of New South Wales over so many years has been invaluable and a great testament to the dedication to your role as a member and to the constituents you represent.

In recognition of your 40th anniversary of your election to the Legislative Council, it would be an honour to invite you to read the prayers in the Chamber on the first sitting day in October.

Once again Revd Nile, please accept my sincere congratulations on reaching this 40 year milestone, so rare in the modern era of this House.

Yours sincerely,
